

Acme Corp Employee Handbook

Version 3.2 | Effective January 2026

1. Company Overview

Acme Corp was founded in 2015 by Sarah Chen and Marcus Rivera in Austin, Texas. The company specializes in enterprise document management solutions and has grown from 5 employees to over 340 across three offices: Austin (headquarters), New York, and London. Annual revenue reached $45 million in fiscal year 2025, representing 28% year-over-year growth. The company has raised $62 million in total funding across Series A, B, and C rounds.

2. Employment Policies

All full-time employees are eligible for benefits starting on their first day. The standard work week is 40 hours, Monday through Friday, with core hours from 10 AM to 4 PM in the employee's local timezone. Remote work is permitted up to 3 days per week with manager approval. Employees must maintain a minimum of 2 in-office days per week. Contractors and part-time employees work under separate agreements and are not covered by this handbook.

3. Compensation and Benefits

Salary reviews are conducted annually in March. The company targets the 75th percentile of market compensation for all roles. Annual bonuses range from 10% to 25% of base salary depending on individual and company performance. Stock options vest over a 4-year period with a 1-year cliff.

Benefit	Coverage	Employee Cost
Health Insurance (PPO)	100% employee, 80% dependents	$0 / $120 per month
Dental Insurance	100% employee	$0 per month
Vision Insurance	100% employee	$0 per month
401(k) Match	Up to 6% of salary	N/A
Life Insurance	2x annual salary	$0 per month
Disability Insurance	60% of salary	$0 per month

4. Paid Time Off (PTO)

Full-time employees receive 20 days of PTO per year, accrued monthly at 1.67 days per month. PTO increases to 25 days after 3 years of service and 30 days after 7 years. Unused PTO carries over up to a maximum of 10 days. PTO beyond the carry-over limit expires on December 31. Employees are encouraged to take at least 10 consecutive days off per year for rest and recovery.

5. Parental Leave

Primary caregivers receive 16 weeks of fully paid parental leave. Secondary caregivers receive 8 weeks of fully paid leave. Parental leave can be taken within the first 12 months following birth or adoption. Employees may also use accrued PTO to extend their leave. The company guarantees the same or equivalent position upon return from parental leave.

6. Professional Development

Each employee receives a $3,000 annual learning budget for conferences, courses, books, and certifications. Additionally, the company sponsors one team offsite per quarter and provides access to LinkedIn Learning, Coursera, and O'Reilly Online. Employees pursuing advanced degrees may apply for tuition reimbursement of up to $10,000 per year, subject to manager and HR approval.

7. Performance Reviews

Performance reviews are conducted semi-annually in March and September. The review process includes self-assessment, peer feedback (360-degree), and manager evaluation. Performance is rated on a 5-point scale: Exceptional (5), Exceeds Expectations (4), Meets Expectations (3), Needs Improvement (2), and Unsatisfactory (1). Two consecutive ratings of 2 or below trigger a Performance Improvement Plan (PIP) lasting 90 days.

8. Code of Conduct

All employees are expected to maintain the highest standards of professional conduct. Harassment, discrimination, and retaliation of any kind are strictly prohibited and will result in immediate disciplinary action up to and including termination. The company maintains a zero-tolerance policy for workplace violence. Employees must report any violations to HR or through the anonymous ethics hotline at 1-800-555-ETHICS.

9. Data Security and Privacy

All employees must complete annual security awareness training within 30 days of their anniversary date. Company data must not be stored on personal devices without IT approval. Two-factor authentication is required for all company systems. Employees who handle customer data must comply with SOC 2 Type II requirements and sign a data handling agreement. Violations of the data security policy may result in termination and legal action.

10. Termination and Offboarding

Voluntary resignation requires a minimum 2-week notice period. Senior managers and directors are expected to provide 4 weeks notice. Upon termination, employees must return all company property within 5 business days, including laptops, access badges, and any confidential documents. Final paychecks including unused PTO are issued within 10 business days of the separation date. COBRA health insurance continuation is available for up to 18 months at the employee's expense. Non-compete agreements, where applicable, remain in effect for 12 months following separation.
